TAMAR VALLEY,
TASMANIA

REVIEWS

James Halliday Wine Companion - 95 Points - August 2022

"The fruit comes from several growers in Tasmania's Tamar Valley, transported to South Australia for vinification and ultimate bottling. It has elegance and purity from the first whiff through to the aftertaste. every component in nuanced balance, in particular the oak in which the wine was fermented and matured. This sense of calm is deceptive, because the dominant white peach has a whisper of mandarin within the citrusy acidity."

Melbourne Royal Wine Show - GOLD - 95 Pts

'Reduction, concentrated and rich, linear and tight acid line to finish, a powerful wine. reduction knitted through the fruit and beautifully done'
