REVIEWS

94 POINTS - HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION - 2024

“Bright, vibrant cherry red in the glass. A shy nose of red and dark cherry, raspberry and wild strawberry that opens with time in the glass. Deep spice and purple floral notes are joined by roasting game meats, hints of forest floor and a touch of creamy oak. Bright acidity and gentle tannins, with a medium-length finish that shows a chalky, savoury flourish.”

92 POINTS - HUON HOOKE - THE REAL REVIEW - NOVEMBER 22

“Quite a deep colour for pinot, bright red-purple, the aroma all about dark cherries, ripe and sweet, with a whiff of chocolate. There’s vibrant richness and satisfying grip on the palate. A bold, solid pinot which needs another year or two to bring out its full complexities. A solid first effort. (Tamar Valley grapes)”
