McLAREN VALE

TONI PATERSON - THE REAL REVIEW - 23.04.19 - 95 POINTS

“Gorgeous raspberry and Turkish Delight aromas. The palate is incredibly soft, supple and flavoursome. The tannins are perfectly integrated, and the acidity is balanced. Outstanding value.”

JAMES HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION - 01.01.19 - 94 POINTS

“It’s difficult not to look this gift horse in the mouth. It is generously endowed with regional black cherry, plum, dark chocolate and licorice. It’s only medium-bodied, but has very good mouthfeel.”

WINE COMPANION MAGAZINE - JUNE 2019 - 94 POINTS

This is a handmade wine, with aromas of red cherry and rich chocolate with Allspice following. Dark chocolate and liquorice precede berries and white pepper with a mouth-filing presence, along with soft lingering tannins and finely integrated oak. A perfect McLaren Vale shiraz that’s been awarded 94 points by James Halliday.

CAMPBELL MATTINSON - THE WINE FRONT - 18.01.19 - 91 POINTS

“McLaren Vale shiraz at an attractive price. Crowd pleaser. Filled with plum-like fruit and coated in milk chocolate. Indeed this is vanillin and creamy, though at the same time I wouldn’t say that it’s been over-oaked. It’s just a generous wine, full of flavour, red and black, well-presented and soft”
