FAMILY CREST

2018 SHIRAZ

McLAREN VALE

CHRISTINA PICKARD - WINE ENTHUSIAST - JUNE 2021 - 92 POINTS

“As one would expect from the sunny, Mediterranean climes of McLaren Vale, this isn't a shy Shiraz. But its robustness and concentration—with notes of plump plum, cassis, mint, ground pepper and chocolaty oak—is neatly balanced by beautifully textured tannins. Well-balanced with surprising finesse for its price point, it never veers into syrupy or cooked territory. Drink now-2028.”

JAMES HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION - NED GOODWIN - DECEMBER 2020 - 91 POINTS

“A deep ruby. Aromas of seaweed, violet, blueberry and Chinese lacquer, all pointing toward something from a cooler zone. Some pepper-grind acidity concurs. Yet this is a legacy of exemplary reductive handling, imparting a tension and a pulpy freshness to the cherry-liqueur signature of the Vale. Extremely impressive at this tier.”

HUON HOOKE - THE REAL REVIEW - 02 JULY 2020 - 90 POINTS ★★ ★★

“Deep red/purple colour, bright and bold, the bouquet plummy and herbal, rich and tannic, chewy and thickly textured, with a decided grip and a very drying aftertaste. This is a very drying aftertaste. This is a very solidly structured shiraz that needs hearty food, and, preferably, more time in the cellar. There's a lot of wine for the money here, but the tannin demands hearty protein-rich food.”
