REVIEWS

The Real Review - Stuart Knox - Feb 2022 - 94 Points

"Deep ruby-red to purple in colour. Blackberry preserve, dark chocolate and vanilla aromatics. Big and mouth-filling, black fruits are everywhere whilst a dark graphite note adds interest alongside oak spices. The tannins manage the enthusiasm well and it goes very long, leaving a rich warmth to the finish. This has a long life ahead of it."

James Halliday - The Weekend Australian - Sept 21 - 97 Points

"From 55yo estate vines; fermented and matured 17 months in new and used French oak. The bouquet has the inimitable McLaren Vale fusion of plum and dark chocolate, the palate wonderfully light on its feet thanks to controlled alcohol and oak letting the terroir speak"
